1. Overview

TOPPAN Inc. (the "Company", "we", "our", or "us") may use cookies on our website (the "Website") at <https://forest.toppan.co.jp/english/> to make the Website easier to use and to provide enhanced services. The types of cookies used on the Website are described in this Cookie Policy.

This Cookie Policy applies to all users ("you" or "your") of the Website. If you do not consent to the use of cookies, you can choose to refuse to consent in Cookies Settings. You can also disable our use of cookies by changing your browser settings. However, please note that disabling the cookies that we use may impact the operation of the Website.

The Company has developed a separate Privacy Policy and Privacy Statement regarding our handling of personal information. Please refer to them for additional details.

2. What are cookies?

Cookies are small data files placed on your device when you visit a site and are exchanged between the site and your browser or device. The use of cookies allows a site to provide services that are more convenient or tailored to your preferences. For example, cookies may maintain the login status on a site, or store your browsing history, including pages visited, to provide personalized content and targeted advertising.

(1) First-party and third-party cookies

All cookies belong to a pre-specified domain. While first-party cookies are cookies issued by the Company, third-party cookies are issued by third parties with whom we partner.

(2) Session cookies and persistent cookies

Some cookies have an expiration date, which determines whether they are session cookies or persistent cookies. Session cookies are temporary cookies that are automatically deleted when you leave the site or close your browser. On the other hand, persistent cookies remain on your device until the preset expiration date or until the cookie is deleted from your browser.

3. Cookies used on the Website

The Website uses the following types of cookies:

These cookies are necessary for the Website to function and cannot be switched off in our systems. They are usually only set in response to actions made by you, such as setting your privacy preferences, logging in or filling in forms. You can set your browser to block or alert you about these cookies, but some parts of the Website may no longer work.

(2) Performance cookies

These cookies allow us to count visits and traffic sources so we can measure and improve the performance of our Website. They help us to know which pages are the most and least popular and see how visitors move around the Website.

Google Analytics: Our website uses Google Analytics to help us analyze how users use the website. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website (including your IP address) will be transmitted to and stored by Google. Read about Google's privacy practices.

When you access these pages, browse the content, or use a feature such as clicking the share button, a cookie may be issued, and the information about your activities on the Website may be linked with your social media account provider. The linked information may be associated with your account information on the social media site and used for access analysis or targeted advertising.
